

Julie Newman

*Singer • Theatrical Training • Musical Comedy
Modeling • Voice-over • Dance • Showgirl*

Julie Newman has graced a variety of Las Vegas venues for over 10 years, seducing the audience with her smooth voice, incredible range, and sultry presence.

Ms. Newman was born in Milwaukee, WI, where she began her love for singing. At a very young age, Julie kept in perfect pitch with any song she heard. She enthusiastically entertained family and friends with her own skillfully choreographed and directed musical acts.

Her childhood summers were spent with the PAC of Milwaukee, performing in their summer series dance and musical theatre. During that time, she modeled in both print and runway. The combination of modeling and theatre lead to new opportunities in voice-over work, allowing Julie to display her uncanny comedic timing, and amazing singing talents.

From there, Julie's family moved to Newport Beach, CA, where she was able to continue her musical pursuits through her high school's award-winning theatre and vocal ensemble. Julie was awarded the lead roles in both "Camelot" (Guinevere) and "Damn Yankees" (Lola). She also had the opportunity to perform at the Laguna Playhouse. After graduating high school, Julie and her family moved to Las Vegas.

Julie's singing career hit a high note when she joined Doo-Wopp.com: a talented ensemble specializing in sweet harmony and all the sounds of the 50's and 60's. The group consisted of nine members, of which Julie was one of the lead singers.

Today, Julie performs as one of three lead singers with Déjà Vu Dance & Show Band, featuring a variety of music from Rock, Disco, Country, & Oldies.

In addition, Julie has teamed up with Déjà Vu's keyboardist, John Greico, forming RetroMotion Music. This dynamic duo engages audiences with fluid vocals and harmony: Julie's sensuality meets John's musicality.
